

For Immediate Release

May 10, 2011

Orr to be Regional Sales Manager at Don Lee Farms

Don Lee Farms has hired Marianne Orr to be School Foodservice Regional Sales Manager

INGLEWOOD, Calif. -- Dr. Jean Harris, Senior Vice President of Don Lee Farms, announced the appointment of Marianne Orr as School Foodservice Regional Sales Manager covering the states of Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico and direct sales in California effective May 31, 2011. Orr brings with her more than seventeen years of experience in the school foodservice industry having worked for the following major corporations: Coca-Cola Bottling, Gatorade/Quaker Oats and The Schwan Food Company.

Orr served as the Industry Advisor for the Southern California School Nutrition Association in 1997-1998. She is currently the Elected Industry Advisor for the California School Nutrition for the 2010-2011 year.

About Don Lee Farms

Based in California and established in 1982, Don Lee Farms is a family-owned manufacturer, co-packer, and national supplier of high-quality fresh and frozen fully cooked food products. Don Lee Farms produces beef, pork, turkey, chicken, vegetarian, and vegan food products for foodservice, retail, convenience store, club and school foodservice markets. Consumer products and end items are sold at Costco Wholesale, Sam's Club and Wal-Mart under the Don Lee Farms label, private brands and under brands of our partners. For more information, visit donleefarms.com.