

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Don Lee Farms is providing product to support the relief effort in response to the recent earthquake and tsunami in northeastern Japan.

Inglewood, CA, March 31, 2011: Don Lee Farms announced that it is providing product to support the relief effort assisting the people and communities affected by the recent earthquake and tsunami in northeastern Japan. Don Lee Farms, in partnership with its distributors, are allocating all available resources to provide immediate food deliveries to the area of operations.

About Don Lee Farms:

Don Lee Farms is a California-based manufacturer and co-packer of high-quality fully cooked fresh and frozen food products. They produce an assortment of beef, pork, turkey, chicken, vegetarian, and vegan food products for club stores, markets, restaurants, and schools nationwide. These products are available under the Don Lee Farms label, private brands, and under brands of their partners.

Contact:
Alesia LeGardye, Don Lee Farms
alesia@donleefarms.com
(310) 674-3180

###